

Which of these are linked to football?

Florence Nightingale is famous for her work on children's education in the 19th century.

In the UK, April 1st is a day when people play jokes on each other...

In 1348, a third of the populations in England, Scotland and Wales died as a result of which plague?

What is the name of a novel by Jane Austen?

At what age can you vote in a General Election in the UK?

Where is the National Assembly for Wales based?

Why is Henry VIII remembered?